Foreword

Approximately two-hundred and seventy-five students a year are graduated from the North Tonawanda High School. This figure represents over one per cent of the total population of the City of North Tonawanda.

The graduating body must be assimilated by this and other near-by communities. The methods of preparation for this assimilation are begun the very formative years of high school.

At the adolescent stage of development a foundation is formed by means of the high school curricula which attempts to prepare the graduate for the eventual assimilation into adult and community life.

At the North Tonawanda High School courses of varying content are offered to the student to aid in the selection of individual and proper vocational choice.

The division pages of this book graphically present a cross-section of these fields of study which are mandated of the students, or offered to them.

The graduates are prepared by means of these areas of endeavor to enter the community as students to continue their formal education; as wage earners and parents to complement the process of community growth.

The 1959 graduating class of the North Tonawanda High School has attempted to illustrate in their year book, the North Star, the means of preparation for this assimilation into community life.

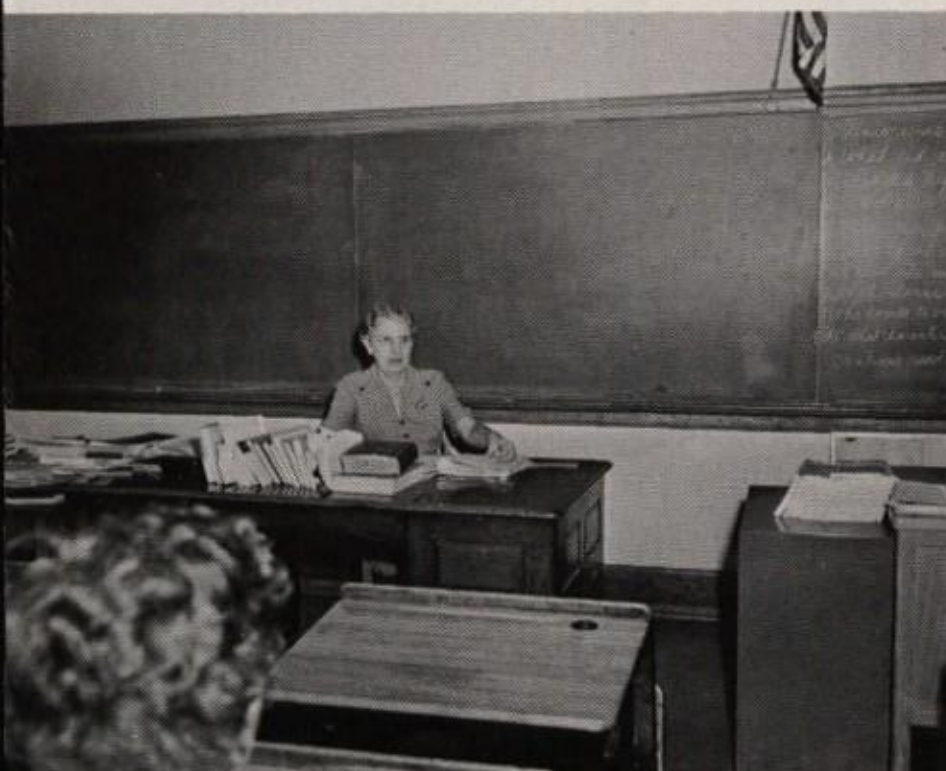

Dedication

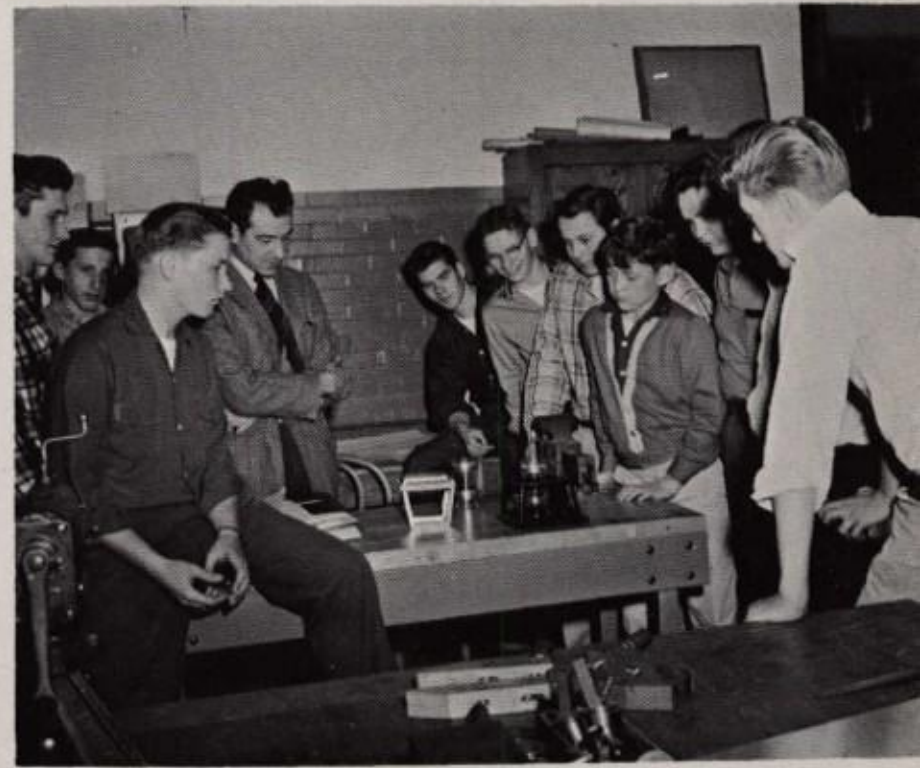

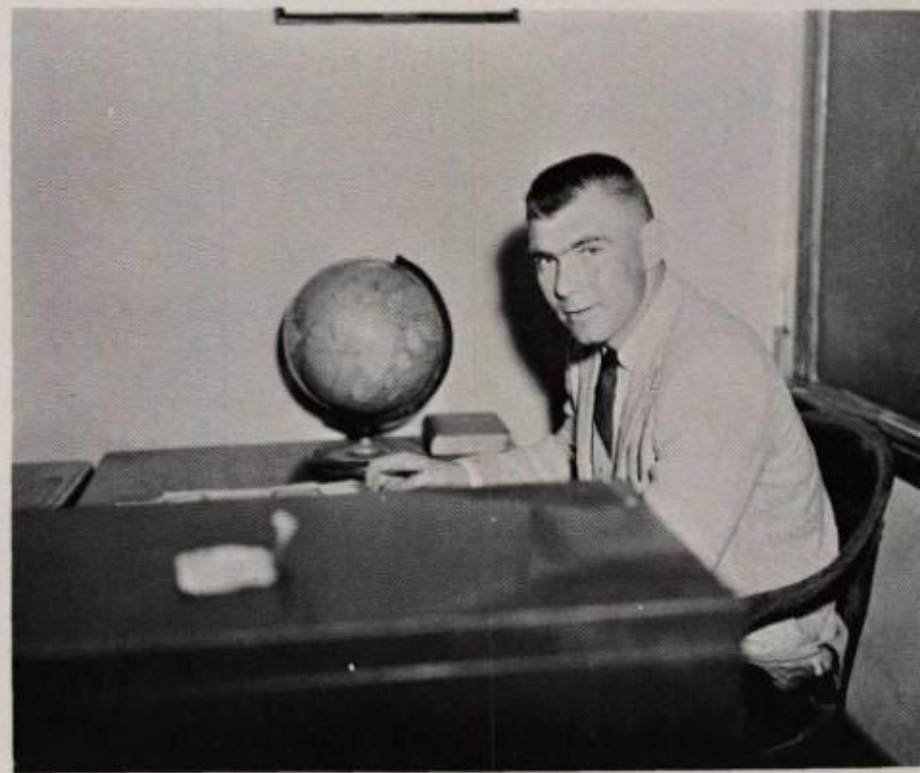

Several years ago Mrs. Edna Cushman was honored at her Twenty-fifth Anniversary.

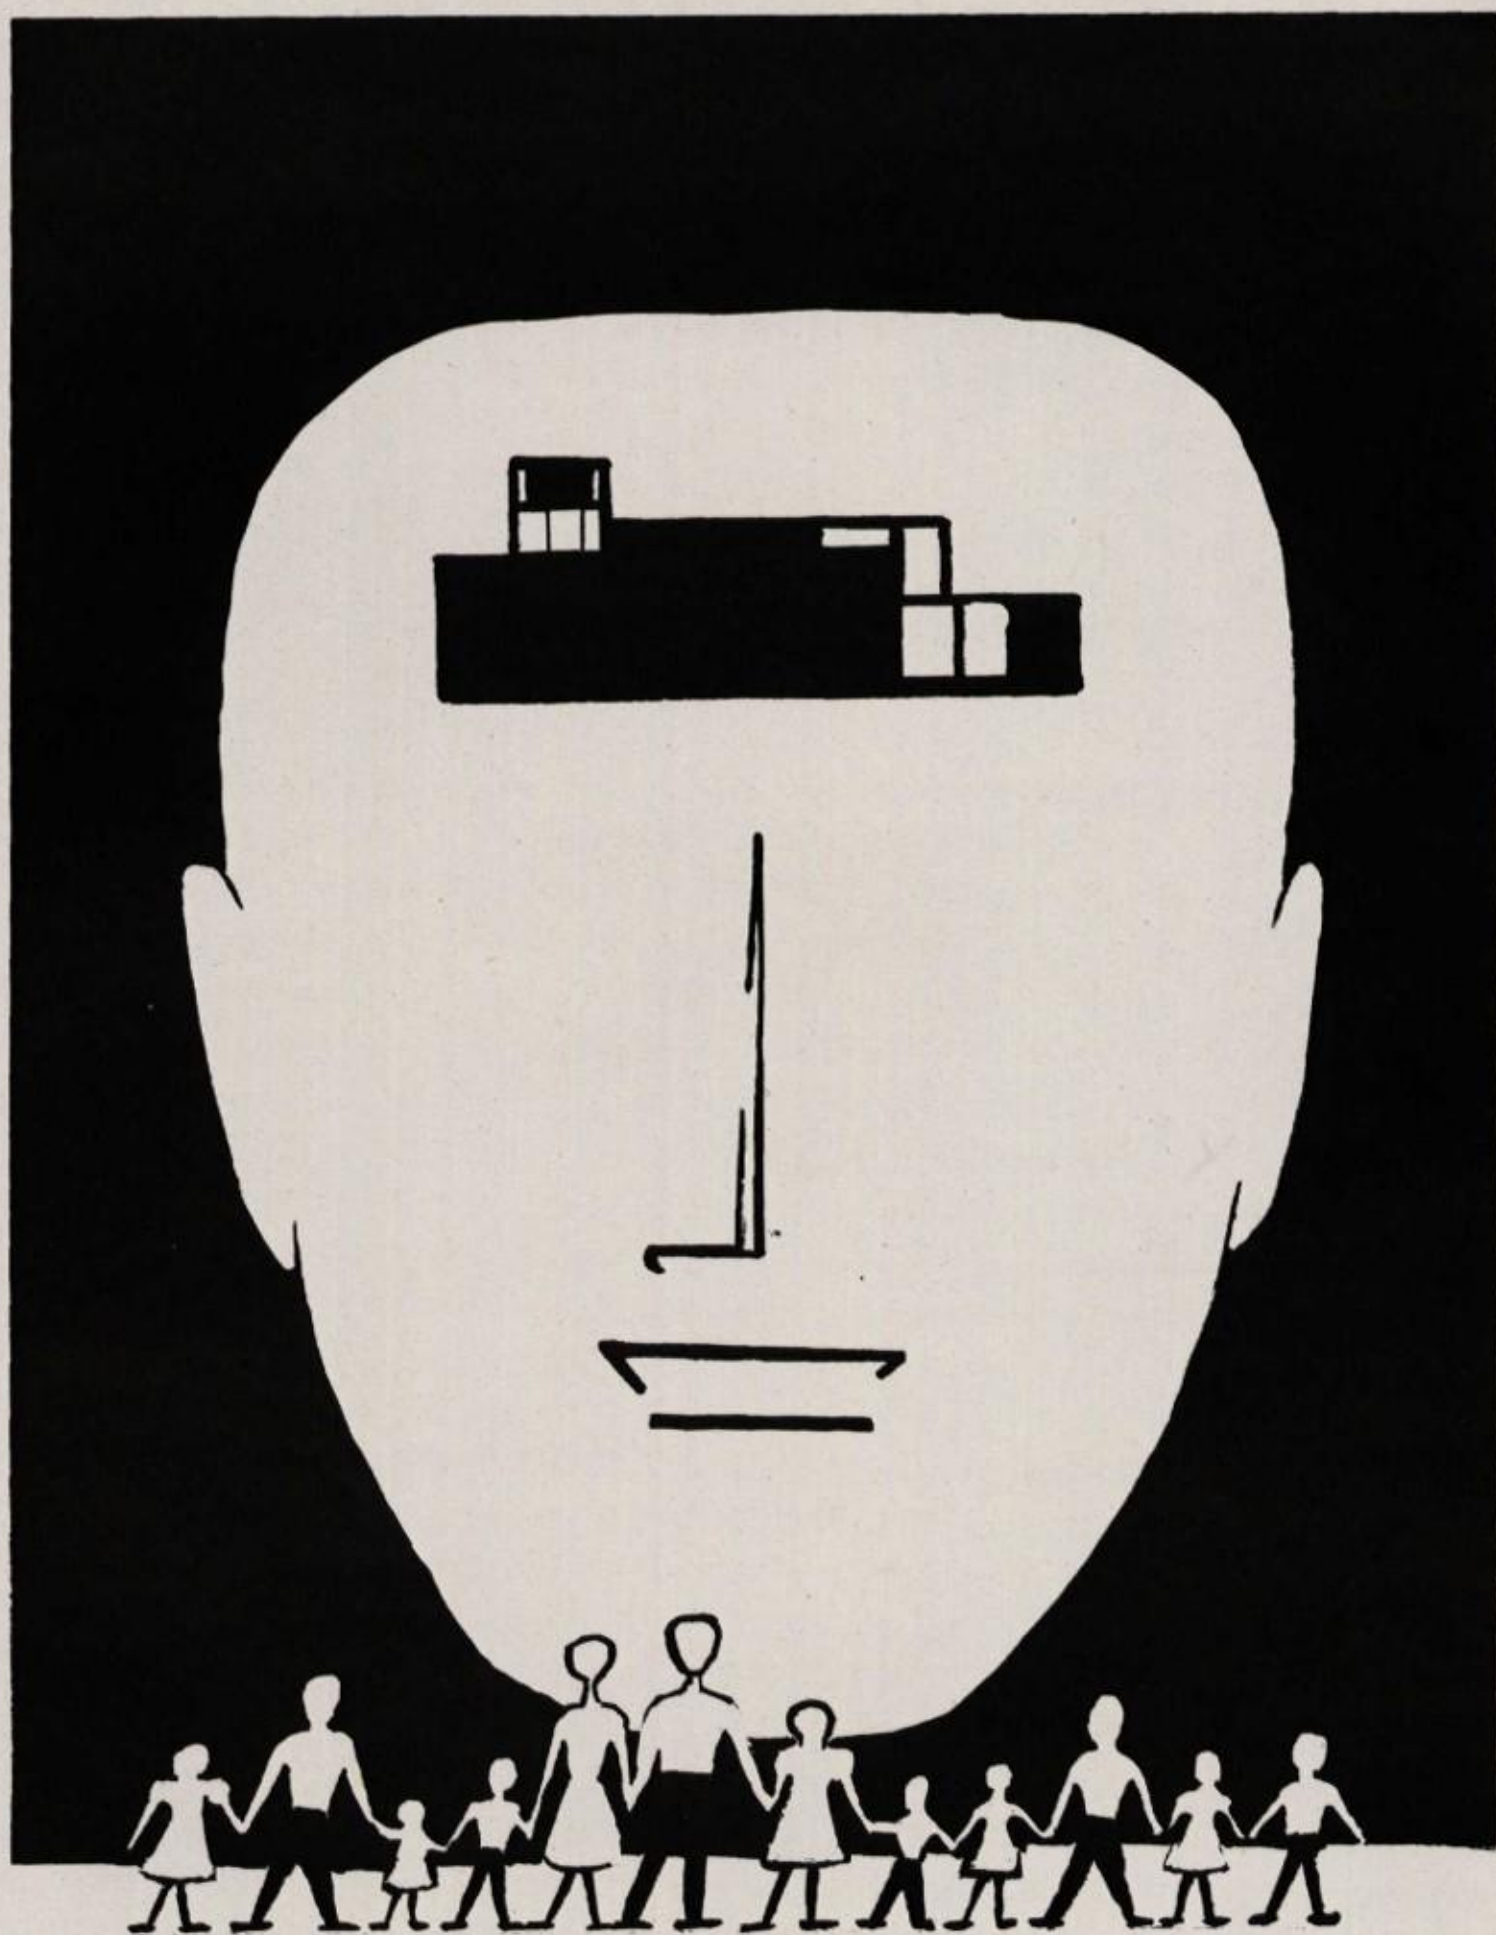

This event marked the end of twenty-five years of service, attention, and devotion to the youths of the North Tonawanda High School.

Although Mrs. Cushman is also licensed to teach French, the major portion of her career has been spent in the teaching of English. At present Mrs. Cushman is preparing Seniors for graduation. She is also Chairman of the English Department which is one of the largest faculties in this school.

For her service, interest, and devotion to the youths of the past twenty-five years, we, the Seniors of North Tonawanda High School, dedicate the 1959 edition of our yearbook, The North Star.

Class Prophecy

Our taxi was waiting, so we were off to the airport. We thanked our taxi driver, Gary Brosius for bringing us to the airport on time, checked our luggage and boarded a new jet airliner. Elaine Hazelet, our very friendly and competent airline hostess, introduced us to Jim Bowden, the pilot for the flight to New York City.

This great city was our first stop of importance on our tour of the world. We attended a performance at the Metropolitan in which Eloise Balogh starred along with Sandra Swierczynski and Letitia Kish. We were not surprised to learn that Carol Pettit had become editor of the "New York Times." In this issue we read about the fame of Bob Lazarawicz as a star "Yankee" and Tom Chester as a star basketball player. A visit to the United Nations building revealed Pat Opalinski and Jane Block happily at work as interpreters. Our ship was ready to leave so we said goodbye to the U. S. for a while.

Aboard ship we were surprised to meet Winanne Messing, Linda Berndt, and Roger Drake enjoying the ocean cruise. Captain Andy Gable gave a dinner for many of the ship's passengers. We both made an appointment with Nancy Wright, the ship's beautician for new hairdos. During dinner we had an engaging conversation with Ken Seitz who was on his way to Europe to study piano under Van Cliburn.

Upon reaching the English coast we boarded a local train which took us to London. Don Werth, our guide through London, showed us many of the sights before we set out for the European mainland. While still in London we learned that Jim Colegrove and Terry Krause were attempting to swim the English Channel.

Ah! "Gay Pareel!" We spent many funfilled days in the capital of France. On a tour through the Louvre we noticed the famous paintings by Dan Kolbe and Sheila O'Grady. We also saw the noted originals in dress designing by Judith Stoekel.

In Berlin we learned of the scientific exploits of Dr. David Keitz and Dr. Kenneth Sitzmann. It is said you will always meet a familiar face in Rome. We found this to be true when we met Linda Ambrusko, Kent Carroll and Carol Ziehm in front of the St. Peter's Basilica.

Off to darkest Africa. Here we join Kathy Dierdorf on a safari into the Belgian Congo led by Jim Durkee, famous game hunter. Back to civilization we meet Bette Alward with her new husband on their honeymoon in Cairo, Egypt. During one sightseeing trip around the pyramids we met James Horn and John Neddy, who were excavating old tombs of the Kings of Egypt.

From Egypt we traveled to Saudi Arabia. The most exciting happening in this phase of our trip was a magnificent ball held by the oil tycoons, James Burd, Thompson Anastasi, and Donald Di Virgilio. Then across India to the Far East.

China was a different world. Our visit in China was the only unfortunate incident in our trip. Here we ate boiled rattlesnake with much apprehension followed by deep regret. We both became very ill. To our great delight, we were attended by an American doctor assisted by Janet Genestre and Myrna Lemke, two very capable nurses. Sally Huber, the doctor's secretary informed us that Jay Foels would supply any necessary medication. After a complete recovery we went on to Japan. Here we encountered James Stec and Dale Nowark, two privates in Uncle Sam's Army. Japan was another wonderland of strange sights.

After Japan came sweet Hawaii. Many of our fellow graduates of '59 including Phil Presicci, Jim Oliverio and Ron Vallio were enjoying themselves under the palms.

Back in the U. S. at last! Our first important stop in the U. S. was Hollywood. Everyone must see Hollywood. There we watched the filming of a new motion picture starring John Milczarski and Kathy Dabb. A visit to a modeling studio showed that others of our classmates, Carol Ortt and Ann Berhalter were among the top ten models. They were being photographed by Linda Coppin and Barbara Kick. A trip to Las Vegas revealed Pete Brady as the owner of a famous night club with George Carere leading a fabulous band. From Las Vegas we went to Colorado where Larry Drake and Susan Urban each owned vast ranches. In Chicago we stayed at the famous David Hanes Hotel run by Carl Onofrio. Marie Turchiarelli and Alberta Razzani, Mr. Onofrio's secretaries informed us that he was soon to become the owner of a chain of hotels. We boarded a bus driven by George Hughes and returned home exhausted after months of traveling. It certainly was wonderful to see all our classmates wherever we went throughout the world.

Weary Travelers,
Rae McCarthy

ACTIVITIES

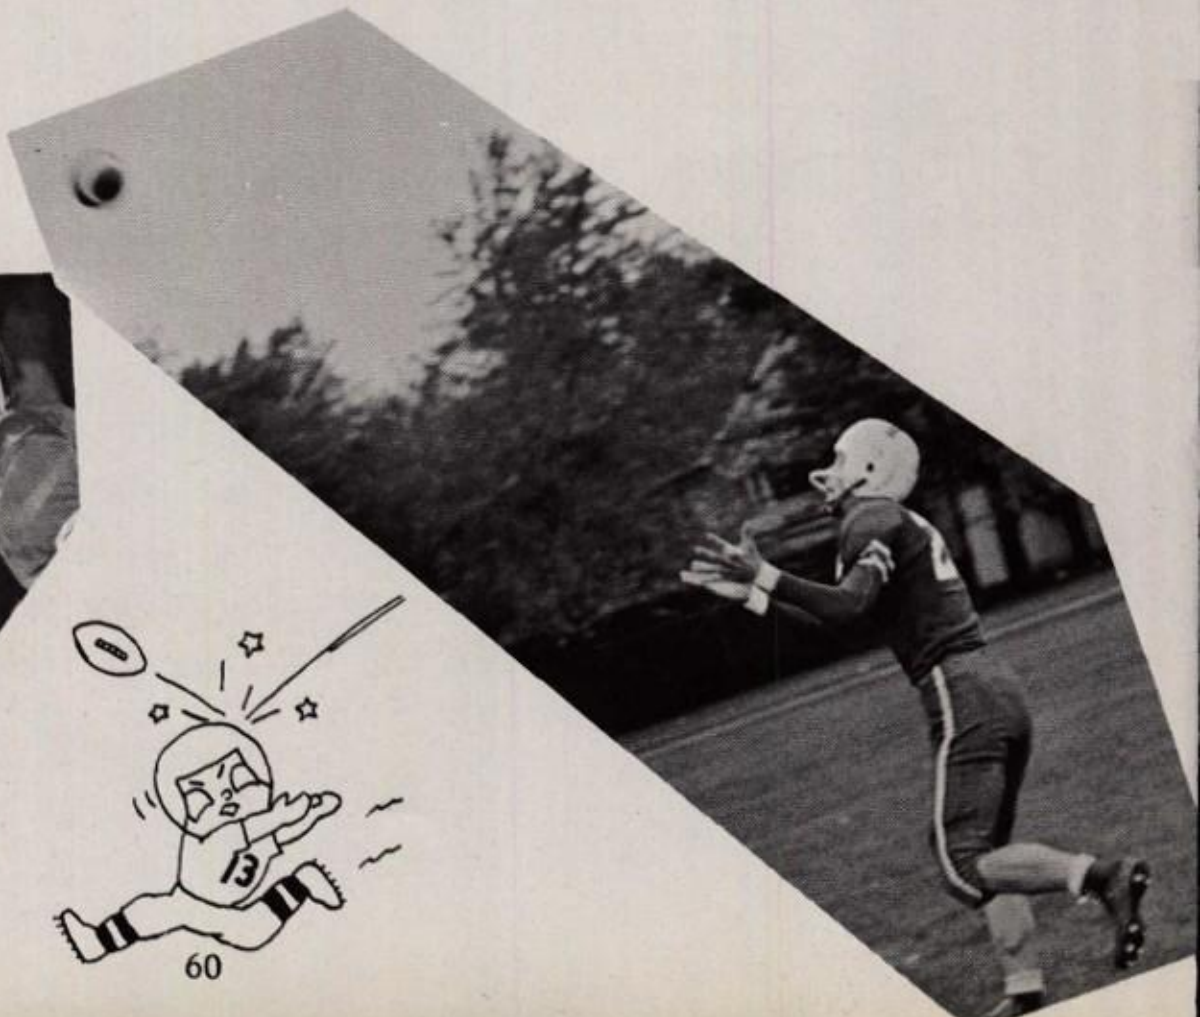

Varsity

Led by a strong line and an equally fine backfield, North Tonawanda enjoyed one of her finest seasons. The record shows six wins, one loss and one tie-- and it might be added that the "Championship was only 58 seconds away." Victories over Niagara Falls, Olean, Kenmore and Tonawanda featured the season. However, the highlight of the season was the 7-0 defeat of the arch rival, Tonawanda. Even the old timers say that this group of fine young men was one of N.T.'s finest. Much credit should be given to the coaching of Mr. Vetter and Mr. Maglisceau for a job well done.
